

FREUD, THE JEWISH DEATH MESSIAH

by ©Eric L. Miller, 2014

“I am not optimistic that public attention or understanding can be drawn to these matters, at this time. After all, Freud is interesting only because he was a religious leader disguised as a scientist, but the fact that he was a religious leader remains eclipsed, for all sorts of reasons.”

Thomas Szasz, the renowned Jewish psychiatrist, 30 years ago this year, spoke “truth to power” when he acknowledged that Freud was a “religious leader”—not a scientist—and that Freud (as history shows by himself and others) “disguised” the fact that he was a “religious leader.” Indeed, in a chapter in one of his books debunking various myths of “psychotherapy”, Chapter 9, Sigmund Freud: The Jewish Avenger—he argues that Freud was a religious racist, and saw himself as the Jewish Messiah of Revenge against the goyim (that is to say everyone not Jewish). And, I am sorry to say, with Dr. Szasz’s recent death, “public attention or understanding” was never forthcoming in his lifetime. Is the rise of another fanatical movement of racist religious Freudians again on the rise in this, the 21st Century?

The above is the question and the challenge of our times—to make public and draw attention to this issue of fanatical “scholars” in high places, propagandizing for their leader’s brand of atheistic fanatical Jewish racism.

For those who can't believe their eyes at what they are reading, as to the new religion of Psychoanalysis, Freud himself clearly said:

I want to entrust it [psychoanalysis] to a profession that doesn't yet exist, a profession of secular ministers of souls.

Of course, Freud doesn't believe in "souls", doesn't believe in "God" and doesn't believe in the "scientific method," but he did believe in "ministers of souls"—that's where the money is—and Freud raked it in (up to $2,500 per 50 minute session), fortunately most every one of his patients was fortunate enough to be wealthy Jew. Freud was first and foremost an enormously greedy man. But, hey, this is "soul" work—everybody can't do it!—those, that is, "who don't have to be physicians and must not be priests."

Freud was to the "scholarly" and certainly the cultural Jewish world, what Madoff was to the financial world—in both cases, they were scammed by their own Jewish brethren's much touted "genius."

The writer and its contributors have apparently no idea whatsoever that Freud was diagnosed by his doctor as having a “Cain complex” or that anyone ever suggested the idea—despite it’s convention bibliography listing the whole library of Freud’s books. Ignorant, stupid?
